

Route Directions

- 1 Walk up the road for 500m.
- 2 Turn left just after Berrow House and the Telephone Box opposite the entrance to Hollybush Quarry. Go up and, after a gate, keep on the contour path until you reach the road at White Leaved Oak (go to 4). To divert over Raggedstone Hill, turn right, just after the gate, up a path which rises to the eastern summit of the Hill (the blue line on the map). This is a steep and difficult path and it is recommended that this diversion is used only with caution.
- 3 At the summit, turn right and cross to the western summit, then left and down following the sign to White Leaved Oak. At the public footpath sign, veer left and, on reaching the contour path, turn right and rejoin the main route following the broad track.
- 5 Carry on south along the ridge veering slightly right at the bottom along a track to the road.
- 6 At the road, turn left and carry on for 350m; as the road bends round to the right for the second time go left through two gates signed Bromesberrow Estate. After the second gate take a line from the nearest large oak and walk parallel to the lake. As Bromesberrow Place comes into view on your left so will a marker post on your right. Follow the marker up the rise to the right and pass three large trees on your left heading for a stile into a small wood.
- 8 Where the road goes left, cross a stile into a field. After a second field, veer left along the road past the church.
- 9 At the (more) main road turn left and just after the village Hall, take the path to your right and make for the right hand corner of a small wood where you cross a bridge and pass through the wood.

Alternative routes

- 10 On leaving the wood, turn right and follow the edge of the wood (a permissive path). Just before a stream, bear right and then immediately left, to follow an obvious track, and carry on through a gate to a tarmac drive. Turn left and follow this to the proper road. (The Right of Way can be very wet and muddy).
- 11 The footpath gate is to the left of the road gate. Go through this, turn right and follow the road for 800m.
- 12 At the top of a rise, turn left along the footpath (a small stoned road). At the top of the hill, the road goes to the left; follow this for 40m, then pass through a gate on your right signed Bromesberrow Estate.
- 13 Keep the Park boundary just on your right and leave the parkland through a gate along the old Bromesberrow Place drive which eventually turns to the left.
- 14 At the cross roads of the old drive and a footpath, turn right and follow the side of the field to the road at the bottom of the hill. Turn left along the road and follow it until you reach Perrins Court when you take the path to the left through a gate and go up through the old orchard.
- 15 When you reach the old Bromesberrow Place drive, turn right and carry on until you leave the wood.
- 16 Carry straight on across the parkland to the North Lodge. If you started at the village hall, the walk can be shortened at this point by going through a gate 100m to your left back into the wood and following a path up until it reaches the contour path when you turn left.
- 17 Leave the park, cross the road and pass through an aluminium gate onto a footpath. Cross two fields to reach the car park.
